

Please don't allow the banking industry to weaken the no-call list that IN Attorney General Steve Carter initiated for our state. We want our privacy. If the banks are successful at making an exception, how many others will be next? Please deny their request